- 9.4 If the matter in dispute remains unresolved and the staff member(s) requires further action in relation to the disputed matter, the staff member(s) shall state such matters, preferably in writing, to be referred to a meeting with University management. Parties to the dispute will participate in conciliation.
  - 9.7.2 If the matter is not able to be resolved under sub-clause 9.7.1 above either party to the dispute may refer the matter to FWA for arbitration unless FWA determines that it does not have jurisdiction.

  - 9.7.4 Either party to the dispute may engage legal counsel to assist in any proceedings in FWA.

- 9.8 In special cases, and where both parties to the matter in dispute agree, the assistance of a mutually agreed private conciliator may be sought. If a referral is not made to FWA, or a private conciliator, within 10 working days after the process described in sub-clauses 9.2 to 9.5 is complete then work shall continue in accordance with the reasonable direction of the University provided that neither party shall be prejudiced in the resolution of the matter in dispute.

PART 2 – SALARIES, PROGRESSION, PROMOTION AND BENEFITS

10. SALARY INCREASE

Salary increases have been made prior to the approval of this Agreement of 2.0% from 23 May 2014. This Agreement provides for further salary increases of:

- 1.0% from 31 December 2014
- 1.5% from 10 April 2015
- 1.5% from 4 December 2015
- 1.5% from 8 April 2016
- 1.5% from 2 December 2016
- 1.5% from 7 April 2017
- 1.5% from 15 December 2017

All the above salary increases are reflected in Schedule A of this Agreement. Any backdated salary increase only applies to staff employed by the University at the time of the commencement of the Agreement [following approval by the Fair Work Commission].

11. SALARY STRUCTURE

The 5 level broadbanded salary structure described in Schedule A is designed to maintain skill levels across the full range of jobs, i.e. whether administrative, technical, general or professional; to ensure a remuneration base for positions requiring the same skill levels; and to create a simplified classification structure.

12. CLASSIFICATION CRITERIA

The salary of a general staff member on appointment shall be to a classification level and step in Schedule A. The basis for the allocation of a salary level or levels, to any position or classification covered by this Agreement shall be on the determination of the appropriate level that accords with the Work Level Descriptors set out in Schedule C of this Agreement.

13. INCREMENTAL PROGRESSION

13.1 Permanent, fixed-term and seasonal/part year or annualised general staff members in Levels 1-2 to 6-7, other than those staff members who have reached the competency bar within Levels 1-2, 3-4 and 6-7 or who are at the top of the classification level, are entitled to be considered for incremental progression through the steps within the level on an annual basis. This consideration is subject to satisfactory performance in accordance with the relevant classification level and the process for consideration of incremental progression as prescribed in Clause 30 - Performance Enhancement and Planning. A staff member will not be disadvantaged in receipt of an increment if a recent performance planner has not been completed through no fault of that staff member. The process for consideration of incremental progression for Level 8/9 staff is as prescribed in Clause 31 – Performance Enhancement and Planning for Level 8-9.

13.2 A general staff member may be eligible for consideration of accelerated incremental progression in accordance with the University's relevant policies and procedures. This process including any decision is not subject to review or any dispute resolution process under this Agreement.

13.3 This Agreement provides for broadbanded classifications with competency bars at Levels 1-2, 3-4 and 6-7 which are consistent with the Work Level Descriptors in Schedule C.

The salary scales specified in Schedule A of this Agreement specify salary points where a progression bar exists. Staff will have the opportunity to seek advancement beyond such competency bars by demonstrating attainment against specified competency profiles.

Progression beyond the competency bars are contingent on the requirements set out below:

- 13.3.1 Staff must, normally, have spent 12 months at the salary point specified as a competency bar.
- 13.3.2 Progression through a competency bar requires the staff member to have completed a current performance planner consistent with the requirements of Clause 30 - Performance Enhancement and Planning of this Agreement.
- 13.3.3 Supervisors must select the relevant competency profile for the position which identifies the requirements that permit progression beyond a barrier and affirm that the position requires the use of these competencies.
- 13.3.4 The staff member and their supervisor must then confirm attainment of the competencies in the profile selected above and provide examples.
- 13.3.5 The relevant Director or Executive Dean reviews the information to ensure it warrants advancement beyond the barrier.

The competencies contain both a number of generic (i.e. University wide) competencies and a number of specific or streamed competencies (i.e. trades, technical, library, and administrative) commensurate within the level to distinguish the additional value of work performed at the higher level within a broadbanded position.

14. RECLASSIFICATION

- 14.1 Reclassification refers to the method by which staff members may move between the classification levels provided in Schedule A of this Agreement. The method involves an assessment of the duties and responsibilities of the position within the Work Level Descriptors in Schedule C. Reclassification occurs in circumstances where a staff member is performing higher level job duties on a non-temporary basis in their substantive position. A higher duties allowance may be more appropriate where the higher level job duties are of a temporary nature. General staff are entitled to apply for reclassification in accordance with the University's General Staff Reclassification Policy.
- 14.2 A submission for reclassification from Level 1-2 to Level 3-4, from Level 3-4 to Level 5; from Level 5 to Level 6-7 or Level 6-7 to Level 8-9 can be initiated by either the staff member or the Head of Unit. The staff member will normally have been on the top of the salary range for at least 12 months and complied with the requirements of performance planning as prescribed in Clause 30. The University will consider the merits of the submission which includes a valid position description and evidence requirements in making a determination. All of a staff member's work is examined however the higher level work must constitute the major and substantial part of the position. Provided all documentation has been submitted and all other requirements have been met a submission will normally be assessed within four weeks of receipt in the Human Resources Division. The Head of Unit and staff member will be informed of the outcome of the submission in writing including reasons for an unsuccessful submission. Successful submissions will normally take effect from the date received in the Human Resources Division and be normally adjusted to the nearest higher salary step in the reclassified level to their current rate.
- 14.3 A General Staff Classification Review Committee will review cases where a submission by a Head of Unit is not approved and where the staff member is of the view that their classification is incorrect or their Head of Unit is not prepared to make a submission in support of this view. Such review will be in accordance with the University's General Staff Reclassification Policy. The Committee shall consist of:
  - an independent chair chosen by the Vice-Chancellor;
  - a management representative; and
  - a staff representative nominated by the union representatives of the Consultative Committee referred to in Clause 7.

A recommendation will be made to the Vice-Chancellor whose decision will be final. The Human Resources Division will inform the Head of Unit and staff member of the outcome of the review in writing including reasons for the decision.

15. SALARY PACKAGING (FLEXIBLE REMUNERATION)

- 15.1 Notwithstanding the salary rates for various classifications in this Agreement, a general staff member may enter an agreement for an individual remuneration package, pursuant to this Clause, which may result in their salary being reduced provided that:
- 15.1.1 The combined package of benefits including liability for fringe benefits tax, if any, and any administrative costs or charges, and the reduced salary is equivalent to the salary prescribed in this Agreement for that staff member; and
- 15.1.2 The staff member will be required to enter into an agreement with the University with terms and conditions that include:
- 15.1.2.1 The superannuable salary for both the rate of contribution and benefit purposes is calculated by reference to the salary specified in this Agreement.
- 15.1.2.2 For periods of paid leave the staff member retains the reduced salary and benefits.
- 15.1.2.3 Any additional remuneration is treated as additional salary but is not taken into account for superannuation purposes other than for fulfilling the University's obligations under superannuation guarantee provisions.
- 15.1.2.4 The staff member shall be entitled to withdraw from, or renegotiate any salary and benefits package by notice in writing on the occurrence of any of the following:
- 15.1.2.4.1 Where any change to laws affecting all or some of the elements of the salary and benefits package involves a financial disadvantage to the staff member if they continued the salary and benefits package;
- 15.1.2.4.2 Where an staff member proceeds on a period of leave without pay for any period greater than 5 working days; or
- 15.1.2.4.3 Any other events or circumstances approved by the University and where 4 weeks' notice in writing is provided.
- 15.2 Any withdrawal from any agreement by the staff member in accordance with this Clause shall be notified in writing to the University.
- 15.3 The University will not be responsible for any loss or disadvantage suffered by the staff member arising from:
- 15.3.1 The cessation of any benefits payments;
- 15.3.2 Any variation to the terms and conditions on which salary and benefits are provided, subject to the provisions of sub-clause 15.1.2;
- 15.3.3 The termination of an individual remuneration package by either party, unless otherwise specified in this Agreement;
- 15.4 The University will exercise its best endeavours to avoid or minimise any such loss which it becomes aware of or which may arise.
- 15.5 In addition, the University will be entitled to recover any payment of salary and benefits paid in advance.

16. SUPERANNUATION

- 16.1 The superannuation guarantee legislation requires the University to make a minimum contribution to superannuation for all general staff members and general casual employees. The University will continue to make the minimum superannuation guarantee contribution on all ordinary time earnings for

The University will make contributions to a nominated superannuation fund in accordance with the requirements of Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 provided that the fund also complies with the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993.

17. ANNUAL LEAVE LOADING

- 17.1 Annual leave loading will be paid on the first payday in December each year based on the proportion of the leave loading year (1 January to 31 December) worked by the general staff member at the ordinary rate of pay as at 31 December of the leave loading year.
- 17.2 General staff shall be granted an annual leave loading equivalent to 17.5% of 4 weeks (5 weeks for 7 day continuous shift workers) ordinary salary as at 31 December provided that the loading payable shall not, in any case, exceed the amount $1526 (based on a salary of $113,749) which shall be fully indexed to annual percentage increases in the ABS Average Weekly Earnings of all males (Australia) over the 12 months preceding the May quarter of each year. - 43.3 When overtime work is necessary it shall, wherever reasonably practicable, be so arranged that staff have at least 10 consecutive hours off duty between the work of successive days:
  - 43.3.1 A staff member who works so much overtime between the termination of ordinary duty on one day and the commencement of ordinary duty on the next day that there is not at least 10 consecutive hours off duty between those times shall be released after completion of such overtime until the staff member has had ten consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such absence, and such staff member shall not report for duty during the next period of ordinary duty before the expiration of a period of not less than 10 hours of duty from the completion of the overtime worked unless directed otherwise by the University.
  - 43.3.2 If on the instructions of the University such a staff member resumes or continues work without having had such 10 consecutive hours off duty, the staff member shall be paid at overtime rates until the staff member is released from duty for such period and the staff member shall then be entitled to be absent until the staff member has had 10 consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such absence.

- 43.3.3 For shift workers 8 hours is substituted for 10 hours when overtime is worked for the purpose of changing shift rosters, or where a shift worker does not report for duty and a day worker or a shift worker is required to replace such shift worker.
- 43.4 Where a staff member has been instructed to report for duty for pre-arranged overtime on a day which the staff member would not have been required to work and on reporting for duty on that day finds that no overtime is available, the staff member shall be paid 3 hours overtime at the overtime rate for that day.
- 43.5 Each days overtime shall stand alone and shall be calculated to the nearest quarter of an hour.
- 43.6 Time worked within University approved flexible or variable hours of work systems do not attract overtime payments.
- 43.7 Staff at the Level 8-9 salary classification are not entitled to overtime payments. The University may in special circumstances approve payment or time off in lieu.
- 43.8 Where a staff member performs duty in respect of which the staff member is entitled to receive any overtime payment and the staff member is agreeable to the granting of time off in lieu of overtime payment, the University may, instead of making that overtime payment, grant to the staff member time off for a period equivalent to the full overtime payment in hours which would have been payable e.g. 4 hours overtime worked at double time is equal to 8 hours' time off in lieu (TOIL) of overtime payment.
- 43.9 The maximum number of hours of TOIL of overtime payments that may be accumulated under this Clause by a staff member shall not exceed the number of hours in the staff member's ordinary working week.
- 43.10 Time off which is accumulated pursuant to this sub-clause shall be taken at a time mutually agreed upon between the staff member concerned and the University, provided that the time off shall be taken within a period of 3 months from the time that the overtime was performed.
- 43.11 Staff members called back for work after leaving the University's premises shall be paid at the appropriate overtime rate for a minimum of 4 hours. Each call shall stand alone. This sub-clause shall not apply in cases where it is customary for a staff member to return to the University's premises to perform pre-arranged overtime or where the overtime is continuous (subject to a reasonable meal break) with the completion or commencement of normal working time.

44. STAFF MOBILITY

- 44.1 A continuing general staff member may be transferred to another vacant position at the same level without advertisement of the vacancy being required.
- 44.2 This provision also applies to continuing staff members wishing to transfer from a part time position to a full time vacancy at the same level or from a full time position to a part time vacancy.
- 44.3 The staff member seeking the transfer must either meet any essential requirements of the position being sought or be able to obtain those requirements within six months.
- 44.4 Such transfers are at the discretion of the University as to whether they occur or the vacancy is advertised. However, where a staff member's request for such a transfer is not approved, reasons will be provided to the staff member in writing.
- 44.5 In some cases, approval may be given by the University to a trial arrangement for a period of up to nine months.

45. FLEXIBLE WORKING ARRANGEMENTS

Notwithstanding other provisions in this Agreement that provide for a change in work arrangements, staff who have completed at least 12 months' continuous service may request a change in their work hours arrangements due to personal circumstances. Any request must be in writing setting out the details of the change sought, including the duration, and the reasons for the change. The University will provide a written response as to whether the request is approved, or not approved. Any request that is not approved will be based on reasonable business grounds with reasons provided.

46. MEDICAL EXAMINATIONS

- 46.1 Where a general staff member has engaged in work duties associated with infectious or contagious material or infected animals; working continuously with toxic substances the staff member shall be refunded the cost incurred in obtaining medical examinations and reports subject to the prior approval of the University. A staff member shall be provided with a copy of such reports upon request.
- 46.2 Staff engaged in the handling, preparation of, or other work involving exposure to radioactive or ionising radiation sources or x-rays shall be provided by the University medical examinations as required by law.
- 46.3 Where a staff member is engaged on work which makes the staff member more than normally liable to contract tetanus the staff member shall be refunded the cost incurred in obtaining immunisation injections subject to the prior approval of the University.

47. ALLOWANCES

47.1 Overtime Meal Allowances

A general staff member when required to work overtime will be paid a meal allowance in addition to any overtime payment as follows:

- 47.1.1 when required to continue working beyond two hours immediately after their normal finishing time (except when the overtime work ceases no later than 6.00 pm); or
- 47.1.2 when required to work overtime for more than five hours on a Saturday, Sunday or Public Holiday; or
- 47.1.3 when required to commence duty at or before 6.00 am being at least an hour before the staff member's usual starting time.

The University will review this allowance annually in accordance with the sum approved by the Australian Taxation Office and update these allowances on the University's website.

47.2 First Aid Allowance

A general staff member appointed as a University first aid officer shall be paid an allowance at the rate of $677 per annum during the period of appointment. This rate will be adjusted annually in accordance with the November annual CPI movement.

47.3 Travel and Meal Allowances

General staff members will be reimbursed for travel and associated expenses incurred on University business. Reimbursement may be on the basis of reimbursement of actual expenses or payment of per diem allowances. Approval, organisation and reimbursement must be consistent with the University's policy on travel and entertainment. Work absences due to travel on University business must be recorded through the travel authorisation process.

The quantum of travel, mileage and meal allowances payable by the University shall be consistent with the allowances approved by the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) as reasonable and shall be adjusted consistent with ATO movements during the life of this Agreement.

47.4 Higher Duties Allowance

- 47.4.1 A staff member who is appointed temporarily to perform all of the duties of a higher classified position for a period of 5 days or more will be paid an allowance for all the time during which the staff member performs such duties. The rate of the allowance shall normally be the difference between the staff member's ordinary rate of pay and the minimum salary of the higher classified position.

- 47.4.2 A higher duties allowance will not normally be paid to a general staff member for a period exceeding six months unless the opportunity has been competitively advertised.
- 47.4.3 For development purposes a staff member may be appointed to temporarily act in a higher role even if they do not meet the minimum requirements for the position. Normally, a more experienced staff member would be appointed to act in the higher role. A full allowance normally will not be approved for a staff member without the minimum requirements of the position.
- 47.4.4 No allowance shall be payable to a designated relieving staff member or a relieving staff member who is recognised as the deputy or assistant of a more senior staff member and whose normal duties as specified by their job description include deputising for that more senior staff member.
- 47.4.5 Staff members who undertake a significant proportion of the duties of a higher level position, but not all of the duties, will at least be paid an allowance to a salary step half way between their substantive level and the minimum of the level to which they are relieving.
- 47.4.6 A staff member who receives a higher duties allowance will be paid such an allowance for approved paid leave while receiving the higher duties allowance based on the amount accrued during the period of higher duties.
- 47.4.7 While relieving in a higher position, the staff member's eligibility for incremental progression on their substantive position remains unchanged. In the case where a staff member receives an increment at their substantive level during a period of relief, the higher duties allowance shall remain unchanged.

47.5 Trades Allowances

A range of other allowances are payable to trades staff in specific circumstances and are listed in Schedule B. These allowances will be adjusted in accordance with future salary increases provided for in this Agreement

47.6 Clothing and Safety Equipment

Where the University requires a general staff member to wear a uniform, protective clothing or safety equipment, such uniform, protective clothing or safety equipment shall be provided by the University and, where appropriate, be maintained, laundered, dry-cleaned or replaced at the expense of the University. Provided that, the University may pay an appropriate allowance to the staff member concerned in lieu of maintaining, laundering, dry-cleaning or replacing such uniform, protective clothing or safety equipment. Any clothing or safety equipment which is provided by the University pursuant to this sub-clause shall remain the property of the University and shall be returned by the staff member on the termination of their employment with the University.

48. ILL HEALTH

The University, through the Director of Human Resources, may require a staff member whose capacity to perform the duties of their role is in doubt to undergo a medical examination by a registered medical practitioner approved by the University. The staff member may suggest a medical practitioner for consideration.

48.1 Medical Examination

- 48.1.1 The University will provide the staff member with written notice of not less than four (4) weeks (or earlier if agreed by the staff member), except in exceptional circumstances where there are immediate health and safety concerns, that a medical examination is required.
- 48.1.2 A copy of the medical report will be made available to the University and the staff member.
- 48.1.3 If absent from work and prior to the staff member returning, the University will require a medical clearance stating that they are able to perform the inherent duties of their position. Should any restrictions on normal duties be identified the staff member will participate in a rehabilitation plan.

48.1.4 All costs associated with the medical examination shall be paid by the University.

48.2 Medical Retirement and Termination of Employment

- 48.2.1 The staff member may during the 4 week notice period (referred to in sub-clause 48.1.1) apply to their superannuation fund for disablement benefits. The University will suspend any action under this sub-clause while an application is under active consideration. Where the superannuation fund does not approve disablement benefits then, as per the process under 48.1.1 above, the requirement for the staff member to undergo a medical examination will resume.
- 48.2.2 The University may direct a staff member to take paid sick leave, or other leave if sick leave has been exhausted, whilst awaiting the outcome of superannuation disablement benefits.
- 48.2.3 Following any period of the receipt of temporary disability benefits where the superannuation fund decides the staff member is capable of resuming work, the University may dispute this decision and proceed in accordance with this Clause but would not do so without further evidence. This evidence includes a further medical examination, a medical clearance or there is a genuine work, health or safety risk identified.
- 48.2.4 Where the superannuation fund grants permanent disability benefits, termination of employment will take effect from the effective date provided by the superannuation fund.
- 48.2.5 Where the medical report states that the staff member is unable to perform their duties, and is unlikely to be able to perform them and/or resume them within 12 months (or in the case of a fixed term staff member within 12 months or the balance of their contract whichever is the lesser), the University may terminate the employment of the staff member in accordance with the notice period under Clause 51 (Notice of termination by the University). Prior to termination of employment, the staff member may obtain a further medical report (i.e. a second opinion) which will be taken into consideration when it is provided in full to the University. The cost of the further medical report will be at the staff member's expense. If terminating the staff member's employment, the University will advise the staff member in writing of the basis for the decision.
- 48.2.6 Where a staff member refuses to undergo a medical examination, the University may reasonably conclude that the staff member is unable to perform their duties and may terminate employment in accordance with required notice period under Clause 51 (Notice of termination by the University). A refusal by a staff member in these circumstances will not constitute misconduct.
- 48.2.7 Should a staff member submit their resignation during this process, it will be accepted immediately thus waiving any notice period required to be given by the staff member.

PART 6 – EFFICIENCY AND CHANGE

49. MANAGING CHANGE

The process for implementing significant workplace change is as follows:

- 49.1 It is acknowledged that sound management of workplace change requires the involvement of general staff who will be affected by that change.
- 49.2 Categories of workplace change subject to this clause may include changes in the composition, operation or size of the workforce or in the skills required; the enhancement, elimination or diminution of job opportunities, promotion opportunities or job tenure; the need for retraining or transfer of staff members to other work or locations, hours of work of a group or unit, the restructuring of jobs and changing work practices.
- 49.3 Where significant workplace change as described under sub-clause 49.2 above, affects staff within a faculty or other unit of the University, the University will directly consult with the staff members affected and advise them they may be represented by their staff representative(s). If a staff member requests representation, the staff representative(s) will advise the University and will be included at all stages of the consultation process. At the request of the affected staff member(s) or their staff representative provided the staff member is identified, the workplace change will also be discussed within the Consultative Committee in accordance with the provisions of this Clause.
- 49.4 Staff members will be entitled to request the advice or assistance of their staff representative(s), as applicable, at any stage of discussion of the change who may be a general staff member, a general staff union delegate or an accredited union official of the CPSU or NTEU
- 49.5 University management responsible for any such proposal must notify affected staff that such a proposal is within contemplation in a reasonable period prior to the finalisation of the decision. The University must ensure that sufficient and relevant information is provided to the affected general staff to allow them to understand the extent and nature of the change proposal; reasons for making the change; timeframe for change; and, the details of likely staffing impacts, including possible redundancies and relocations.
- 49.6 The consultation shall commence as soon as possible after it becomes clear that a change is contemplated.
- 49.7 For the purpose of the consultations, University management shall provide the staff members likely to be affected and where requested their staff representative(s) with sufficient information.
- 49.8 As indicated in sub-clause 49.5 above the University management shall allow sufficient time for the consultations and shall give consideration to matters raised by those affected and where requested their staff representative(s) before reaching a definite decision. This process should normally be completed within a 5 week period.
- 49.9 All affected general staff and where requested their staff representative(s) will be advised of any changes subsequently recommended; the rationale for such changes; and will have an opportunity to comment on the recommendations.
- 49.10 The process of implementation of any recommendations resulting in changes listed in sub-clause 49.2 above will be in good faith and will proceed after such consultation. Staff and their representatives will be consulted during the implementation process.
- 49.11 Where changes are likely to lead to the need for forced retrenchment the University shall ensure that reasonable measures are taken including:
  - 49.11.1 all practical avenues of redeployment have been considered;
  - 49.11.2 appropriate staff at the same level in similar categories of employment have been asked to consider voluntary redundancy to create redeployment opportunities;

- 49.11.3 all positions currently vacant or likely to become vacant in the near future (e.g. through retirement) have been considered as alternatives for redeployment.
- 49.12 Where the change involves a restructure or implementation of a new structure positions that have not substantively changed will continue to be filled by the incumbent in accordance with their continuing or fixed term contract of employment. Where new positions have been created any staff member at the same classification level displaced or likely to be displaced in the restructure may lodge an expression of interest in those positions in the first instance. Should any expression of interest be unsuccessful, the University may proceed to fill those positions in accordance with its normal recruitment procedures.
- 49.13 Only after the above factors have been considered and any relevant procedures have been followed shall the University consider the use of forced retrenchment to adjust its staffing profile and shall act in accordance with Clause 50 – Voluntary Redundancy, Redeployment and Retrenchment of this Agreement.
- 49.14 Any disputes in relation to the application or operation of this Clause shall be dealt with under Clause 9 - Disputes Resolution Procedure.

PART 7 – VOLUNTARY REDUNDANCY, REDEPLOYMENT AND RETRENCHMENT; NOTICE OF TERMINATION AND SEVERANCE PAY

50. VOLUNTARY REDUNDANCY, REDEPLOYMENT AND RETRENCHMENT

- 50.1 The provisions of this Clause shall operate consistent with the provisions of Clause 49 - Managing Change.
- 50.2 The University is committed to redeploying displaced general staff members whenever this is possible including the opportunity to express interest in redeployment or voluntary redundancy.
- 50.3 A staff member is displaced when the University advises that staff member (or a group of staff members) that their position is no longer required. Displaced staff members may then elect to either accept immediate voluntary redundancy or seek active redeployment. This election will be sought in writing from the relevant staff member(s) with one week to respond unless there are extenuating circumstances. Should a staff member fail to respond within the required timeframe, the University will proceed to immediate retrenchment.
- 50.4 Where a staff member elects, at the time of being advised of displacement, not to pursue redeployment but rather for immediate redundancy the staff member will be entitled to 24 weeks' notice or payment in lieu of all or part of this notice period.
- 50.5 Where a staff member elects to be redeployed, an active placement process will be undertaken by the University during the notice period of 24 weeks from the date that a displaced staff member elects to be considered for redeployment. Where a staff member has sought redeployment but a suitable position has not been found within the specified period above, the staff member will be retrenched at the end of the notice period.
- 50.6 At any time during the 24 week notice period, the staff member may elect to terminate the redeployment process and be retrenched. The staff member will only receive any balance of the 24 weeks' notice period not already worked.
- 50.7 Where a staff member and the University agree to a trial, the redeployment period provided in sub-clause 48.5 will be suspended for the duration of the trial. A suspension of the redeployment period to allow for a trial may only occur once.
- 50.8 The active placement process referred to in sub-clause 50.5 will be maintained in the University's Redeployment procedure.
- 50.9 During the placement period as prescribed in sub-clause 50.5, the displaced staff member may continue to work in their own work unit; and/or work temporarily in another work unit; and/or undertake training. This process will be co-ordinated by the Human Resources Division in consultation with the relevant manager(s). Staff members will be entitled to seek the advice and assistance of their staff representative, during the redeployment process.
- 50.10 No reasonable offer of redeployment to a position at the same level performing similar duties will be refused by a displaced staff member who elects to be considered for redeployment. Refusal of a reasonable offer of redeployment will result in cancellation of the election to seek redeployment made in sub-clause 50.3.
- 50.11 A staff member who has agreed to be redeployed to a position at a level lower than their previous salary level will receive salary maintenance at their previous rate of pay for a period of 52 weeks. Following this period the staff member will be paid at the rate of pay for the position into which they have been redeployed.
- 50.12 During the redeployment period specified in sub-clauses 50.5 or 50.6 a displaced staff member will be eligible for appropriate out placement support; and a reasonable amount of time without loss of pay to attend job interviews or other job search activities.

- 50.13 A staff member who has elected a voluntary redundancy or is retrenched will be entitled, to a severance payment (pro-rated for part time service in accordance with sub-clause 26.5) calculated on the basis of 4 weeks' pay where the length of service is less than 1 year and for service in excess of 1 year, 2 weeks' pay for each additional completed year of continuous service up to a maximum of 36 weeks. For the purposes of this Clause, breaks of up to 2 months between fixed term or continuing contracts of employment with the University will not be regarded as a break in service. However, the period between the two contracts of employment shall not be taken into account in determining the length of continuous service.
- 50.14 A staff member aged 45 years or more shall be entitled to an additional 4 weeks pay.
- 50.15 The maximum number of weeks payable under this Clause shall be 64 weeks.
- 50.16 Weeks pay means the ordinary time rate of pay for the staff member concerned.

51. NOTICE OF TERMINATION

51.1 Notice Periods for Fixed Term Contracts

51.1.1 The University shall provide a fixed term general staff member, other than a staff member engaged as a replacement staff member or on a pre-retirement contract, written notice of the University's intention to renew, or not to renew, employment upon the expiry of the contract. Such notice shall be prior to the specified end date of the contract and in accordance with the table in sub-clause 51.2.1 below.

51.1.2 Where, because of circumstances relating to the provision of specific funding to support employment, external to the University and beyond its control, the University is not reasonably able to give the notice required by sub-clause 51.2 below, it shall be sufficient compliance with this sub-clause if the University:

51.1.2.1 advises those circumstances to the staff member in writing at the latest time at which the notice would otherwise be required to be given, and 51.1.2.2 gives notice to the staff member at the earliest practicable date thereafter.

51.2 Notice of termination by the University

51.2.1 In order to terminate the employment of a continuing full time or part time staff member the University shall give to the staff member the period of notice specified in the table below:

51.2.2 In addition to this notice, staff members over 45 years of age at the time of the giving of notice with not less than two years of continuous service, are entitled to an additional week's notice

51.2.3 Payment in lieu of the notice will be made if the appropriate notice period is not required to be worked. Employment may be terminated by the staff member working part of the required period of notice and by the University making payment for the remainder of the period of notice.

51.2.4 In calculating any period in lieu of notice, the wages a staff member would have received in respect of the ordinary time they would have worked during the period of notice had their employment not been terminated will be used.

51.2.5 The period of notice in this Clause, shall not apply in the case of dismissal for conduct that justified instant dismissal including inefficiency within the first fourteen days, serious or wilful neglect of duty or misconduct and in the case of casual employees or staff members engaged for a specific period of time or for a specific task or tasks.

51.3 Notice of termination by the staff member

51.3.1 The notice of termination required to be given by a staff member is the same as that required of the University, save and except that there is no requirement on the staff member to give additional notice based on the age of the staff member concerned.

51.3.2 If the staff member fails to give notice, the University has the right to withhold monies due to the staff member to a maximum amount equal to the ordinary time rate of pay for the period of notice.

52. SEVERANCE PAY

52.1 A fixed term staff member, other than a staff member who is employed in a fixed-term contract as a replacement staff member or in a fixed term pre-retirement or post-retirement contract, whose contract of employment is not renewed in circumstances where the staff member seeks to continue the employment shall be entitled to a severance payment, in accordance with the Schedule below, in the following circumstances:

52.1.1 The staff member is employed on a second or subsequent fixed term contract and the same or substantially similar duties are no longer required by the University; or

52.1.2 The staff member is employed on a fixed term contract and the duties of the kind performed in relation to work continue to be required but another person has been appointed, or is to be appointed, to the same or substantially similar duties.

7 years and up to the completion of 8 years	13 weeks' pay
8 years and up to the completion of 9 years	14 weeks' pay
9 years and up to the completion of 10 years	16 weeks' pay
10 years and over	18 weeks' pay

52.1.3 Week's pay means the ordinary time rate of pay for the staff member concerned.

52.1.4 Provided that the severance payments shall not exceed the amount which the staff member would have earned if employment with the University had proceeded to the staff member's normal retirement date.

52.2 Where the University advises a staff member in writing that further employment may be offered within six weeks of the expiry of a period of fixed term employment, then:

52.2.1 The University may defer payment of severance benefits for a maximum period of four weeks from the expiry of the period of fixed term employment.

52.2.2 The University, in a particular case, may make application to the FWA to have the general severance payment varied if the University obtains acceptable alternative employment for the staff member.

PART 8 - LEAVE

53. LEAVE APPLICATION

All leave (including flexi time) is to be requested and approved via the on-line Web Kiosk system prior to taking such leave (or in the case of sick or family leave upon return to work). Where this is not possible, alternative arrangements will be specified by the University.

54. ANNUAL LEAVE

- 54.1 General staff members, are entitled to 20 (25 for 7 day continuous shift workers) working days per annum of annual leave in addition to any Public Holiday occurring during such period of annual leave. Annual leave will accrue pro-rata from the date of commencement of employment.
- 54.2 Fixed-term staff may be required to take all accumulated annual leave during the fixed period of the contract provided that any such requirement will be stated in the offer of appointment and the staff member and their supervisor will be reminded of any such requirement at least two months prior to the end of the fixed-term contract. In such circumstances a staff member will be given the opportunity to take their accrued annual leave.
- 54.3 The balance of any annual leave shall be payable to a staff member on termination of employment with the University, for whatever reason. The monetary value of all annual leave for which the staff member was eligible at the time of death shall be paid to the staff member's legal personal representative, unless paid by the University to the staff member's widow or widower or to the guardian of the infant children of the staff member.
- 54.4 The leave will normally be taken at a time of the staff member's choosing. However, annual leave may not be approved where it adversely affects operational requirements. When this occurs, the reasons must be provided to the staff member and where requested alternative dates agreed. Any request for leave will not be unreasonably refused and can be referred to the Director of Human Resources for review whose decision shall be final.
- 54.5 Staff members must take at least 15 days annual leave in each leave year. Where a staff member does not meet this requirement in any leave year, the University may direct the staff member to take the required amount of leave; as far as practicable the wishes of the staff member concerned shall be taken into consideration when determining the time of taking such leave. It is recognised that staff may make plans to take an extended annual leave absence. Accordingly where a staff member makes a compelling case for a deferral of the requirement to take 15 days annual leave, the Vice-Chancellor or nominee may approve a deferral, subject to a requirement that 30 days be taken within 2 years.
- 54.6 A staff member may accumulate annual leave up to a maximum of 40 days, subject to the other provisions of this Clause. The University may direct a staff member to take annual leave accrued in excess of this amount. Provided that before such annual leave is directed to be taken the staff member shall be advised in writing that annual leave is at or in excess of the maximum of 40 days and given the opportunity to take the annual leave by submission of a leave application within 2 months of being advised.
- Should a leave application not be submitted within 2 months of being advised the staff member shall be directed in writing to take annual leave on the dates specified.
- 54.7 In exceptional circumstances, the Chief Administrative Officer may approve a higher balance of annual leave for a period of time that is in excess of the maximum outlined in sub-clause 54.6
- 54.8 If a staff member has been absent from duty on leave without pay for more than five working days in all, in any year (being a period of 12 months commencing on the anniversary of the date which the staff member commenced the current period of employment with the University) the period of absence from duty on leave without pay shall not be counted as service for the purpose of determining eligibility for annual leave in that year.

- 54.9 Where a staff member is granted and takes long service leave or parental leave on half pay, the period of such long service leave shall be taken into account to the extent of one half thereof only in determining the accrual of annual leave.
- 54.10 Where a staff member, who is eligible for sick leave, produces a satisfactory medical certificate that the staff member has been incapacitated for a period of one week or more whilst on annual leave, the University shall recredit the staff member with an equivalent period of annual leave, provided that no such recredit shall be granted to a staff member on annual leave prior to retirement, resignation or termination of services.
- 54.11 A staff member may once per calendar year make written application to the Director of Human Resources to cash out annual leave provided the staff member maintains a minimum balance of 20 days. A minimum of 5 days at any one time may be cashed out. On payment of the cash equivalent of the leave the staff member's annual leave balance will be debited accordingly. Notwithstanding the provisions of this sub-clause, a staff member is still required to take a minimum of 15 days annual leave each year as provided for in sub-clause 54.5.

55. PUBLIC HOLIDAYS AND UNIVERSITY CONCESSIONAL DAYS

- 55.1 General staff members (other than casual employees) who are not required for duty, shall be allowed to observe the following days, or substitute days, as holidays without loss of pay:
- 55.1.1 New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Queen's Birthday, Labour Day, Christmas Day, Boxing Day;
  - 55.1.2 all other proclaimed Public Holidays for the State of New South Wales, and
  - 55.1.3 concessional days being all other days falling between Christmas Day and New Year's Day. (Concessional days are in lieu of previously existing University holidays, Bank Holiday, Picnic Days and concessional half days before Easter and Christmas Day.)
- 55.2 A staff member who is required to work on a Public Holiday will, for ordinary hours of duty actually worked, be paid at 1.5 times in addition to their ordinary rate of pay. Provided that the additional payment will be in substitution for any shift allowance or penalty applicable and not in addition to it for the hours worked.
- 55.3 Where a Public Holiday occurs on a rostered day off of a rostered staff member who does not work on that rostered day off, such staff member shall be entitled to an additional days leave (or at the option of the University, an additional days pay at the ordinary rate) in lieu of such holiday, such leave to be taken at a time mutually convenient to the staff member and the University.
- 55.4 Staff whose services are required by the University during the concessional holidays period will be granted the same period off duty at a mutually convenient time within the ensuing two months.

56. SICK LEAVE

- 56.1 A general staff member (other than casual employees) who satisfies the University that the staff member is unable to perform their duties by reason of personal illness or personal incapacity (not being illness or incapacity caused, or was a substantial contributing factor, by injury arising out of or in the course of their employment) shall be entitled during such illness or incapacity to sick leave with pay, subject to the conditions specified in this Clause.
- 56.2 If any sick leave absence exceeds three consecutive working days, the staff member shall provide a certificate by a medical practitioner.
- 56.3 In cases where a staff member has a sick leave pattern of frequency or duration that is of concern it will be referred to the Director of Human Resources for consideration. Following such consideration the Director of Human Resources may:
- 56.3.1 require a staff member to produce a certificate from a medical practitioner for any sick leave absence (subsequent to such requirement being made) stating where appropriate, and subject to privacy considerations, the nature of the illness or incapacity that the staff member is unable to attend for duty on each and every day in respect of which the staff member claims sick leave; and/or

- 56.3.2 require an independent medical examination for assessment of the staff member's fitness for work.

Unless there are demonstrable mitigating circumstances as to why a staff member did not comply with the requirements of this sub-clause, paid sick leave will not be granted. Where paid sick leave is not granted the staff member may take other forms of appropriate leave including leave without pay.

- 56.4 Where a staff member under sub-clause 56.3.1 above is required to produce a medical certificate, the requirement will be reviewed after six months.
- 56.5 The staff member absent from duty due to personal illness or personal incapacity shall as far as practicable:
- 56.5.1 inform their supervisor as soon as practicable of their inability to attend for duty;
- 56.5.2 state the estimated duration of the absence.

On return from sick leave the staff member is to submit a sick leave application via Web Kiosk and provide any sick leave medical certificate to their supervisor for submission to the Human Resources Division to support the application.

- 56.6 A staff member's entitlement to sick leave with pay shall be calculated by allowing 15 days paid sick leave during the first year and thereafter for each subsequent year of service. Untaken paid sick leave shall accumulate from year to year.
- 56.7 Where a staff member has exhausted their sick leave entitlement, additional sick leave may be granted on the approval of the Vice-Chancellor. In such cases, the Vice-Chancellor shall have the discretion to require an independent medical examination.
- 56.8 Where a staff member with a workers compensation claim has their benefits reduced in accordance with the Workers Compensation Act the staff member will be able to apply to utilise their sick leave entitlements to maintain (i.e. to top up) their full pay for the remaining rehabilitation period. Failure to comply with the requirements of the staff member's injury management plan and the University's injury management program may result in the withdrawal of the use of sick leave entitlements for this purpose.

57. LONG SERVICE LEAVE

- 57.1 General staff members (other than casual employees) shall be eligible for long service leave (LSL) based on service with the University (whether continuous or broken), as follows:
- 57.1.1 After 10 years' service to 65 working days leave on full pay or 130 working days on half pay.
- 57.1.2 For service between 10 and 15 years leave shall accrue proportionately of the basis of 6.5 working days per year.
- 57.1.3 For service in excess of 15 years with additional leave pro rata at a rate of 11 working days per year of service.
- 57.2 Where a staff member has completed at least 5 years continuous service but less than 10 years continuous service, and the staff member's fixed term contract comes to an end due to the effluxion of time or the staff member's services are terminated by the University for any reason other than for serious and wilful misconduct, or by the staff member on account of illness, incapacity or domestic or other pressing necessity, or by reason of the death of the staff member, such staff member shall be entitled to a proportionate amount of LSL on the basis of 65 working days for 15 years' service.
- 57.3 If a staff member has an entitlement to LSL under sub-clause 57.1 above, but prior to entering upon such leave has their employment terminated by dismissal or by notice duly given by either party, the staff member shall be entitled to receive the monetary value of the leave at credit computed at the rate of salary which such staff member was receiving immediately prior to the termination of employment.

- 57.4 In the event of the death of any staff member, the monetary value of all LSL for which the staff member was eligible at the time of death shall be paid to the staff member's estate or as required by law.
- 57.5 For the purpose of calculating service in respect of sub-clause 57.1:
- 57.5.1 Any periods of leave without pay shall not count as service when determining whether a staff member has completed 10 years' service nor count as service for the accrual of LSL entitlements.
- 57.5.2 Any period of leave without pay not exceeding 6 months shall count for LSL purposes where a staff member has completed 10 or more years' service but where such period of leave without pay exceeds 6 months, the whole period of leave without pay shall not count as service.
- 57.5.3 Casual employment does not count as service for LSL purposes.
- 57.6 Where a staff member is granted leave for service in the Australian Defence Forces, such service shall be counted as ordinary service in computing LSL.
- 57.7 Eligibility for LSL shall be determined taking into account prior continuous full time paid service with Australian universities which grant transferability of service with Australian universities for long service leave to staff members provided that:
- 57.7.1 If a staff member has availed themselves of LSL or is eligible to be paid or has been paid lieu of LSL by the releasing University, the staff member will not accrue any entitlement to leave for the period of service with the releasing University for which leave has been paid or for which there is eligibility for the payment but subject to these conditions such a period shall be included as qualifying service for determining when the staff member is eligible to take LSL.
- 57.7.2 There is not more than 2 months between the cessation of employment with a releasing University and the commencement of employment with a receiving University, in which case continuity of service will be deemed not to have been broken for the purposes of LSL. However, the period between the two contracts of employment shall not be taken into account in determining length of service for LSL.
- 57.7.3 The staff member will be required to serve at least 3 years with the University under this Agreement before being permitted to take accrued LSL or be paid in lieu on termination of employment, except that in eligible cases, payment in lieu of such leave will be made when a staff member dies or receives an invalid or breakdown pension under the provisions of a relevant superannuation scheme.
- 57.8 LSL accrues pro rata for part time staff members, including those employed in seasonal/part year or annualised employment, and is taken on an equivalent basis. Staff members who have had a combination of full time and part time employment shall have their accrual calculated at the equivalent rate for each different period of full time and part time employment (whether continuous or broken).
- 57.9 Public holidays and University concessional days do not count as days taken during periods of LSL.
- 57.10 LSL may be taken at either full pay or half pay, at the election of the staff member. A minimum of 10 continuous working days must be taken if LSL is to be taken at half pay.
- 57.11 The minimum period of LSL which can be taken on any occasion is 5 consecutive working days (pro rata for part time staff). Where public holidays coincide with a period of LSL the public holiday shall count for the purpose of determining the minimum period.
- 57.12 A staff member who has qualified for LSL shall be entitled to take LSL at a time of their choosing, provided that at least six months written notice of such leave is given or, in the absence of such notice, the University consents.

- 57.13 Where a staff member has accumulated a LSL entitlement in excess of 100 working days, the Vice-Chancellor or nominee may give the staff member written notice to take up to 65 working days of such leave, at a time convenient to the institution. Provided that:
- 57.13.1 Such leave shall be taken at a time agreed between the staff member, Head of Unit and Executive Dean in view of the requirements of the University;
  - 57.13.2 If an agreement is not reached the Vice-Chancellor or nominee shall give the staff member written notice of at least twelve months of the date on which leave must commence;
  - 57.13.3 The staff member shall not be directed to take LSL within 24 months of the intended date of retirement of the staff member or during the University break between Christmas and New Year;
  - 57.13.4 The minimum period of leave the University can require a staff member to take shall be 30 working days;
  - 57.13.5 In any case where a staff member has taken leave pursuant to this sub-clause the Vice-Chancellor or nominee shall not require the staff member to take a further period LSL for a period of two years after the end of that period of leave.
- 57.14 It is recognised that staff may have firm plans to take such accrued leave at a particular future point in time. Accordingly where a staff member makes a compelling case for a deferral of the requirements of this Clause, the Vice Chancellor or nominee may approve the deferral.
- 57.15 A staff member who has a long service leave entitlement under this Clause may, once per calendar year, make written application to the Director of Human Resources to cash out part of their long service leave balance subject to maintaining a minimum balance of 65 working days. A minimum of 20 days at any one time may be cashed out. On payment of the cash equivalent of the leave the staff member's long service leave balance will be debited accordingly.

58. PARENTAL LEAVE

58.1 Parental Leave

- 58.1.1 A permanent or fixed-term general staff member shall be entitled to paid Parental Leave in accordance with the provisions of this Clause if they have completed at least 40 weeks continuous paid service with the University prior to the commencement of any Parental Leave. Permanent and fixed-term staff who are not entitled to paid Parental Leave may make an application for leave without pay which will be dealt with on a case by case basis.
- 58.1.2 Casual employees shall not be entitled to paid Parental Leave.
- 58.1.3 Parental Leave is a broader leave description that encompasses:
  - 58.1.3.1 Maternity Leave
  - 58.1.3.2 Partner Leave
  - 58.1.3.3 Adoption Leave
  - 58.1.3.4 Foster Parent Leave
- 58.1.4 Part-time staff members entitled to Parental Leave shall receive such entitlement on a pro-rata basis in proportion to the fraction of their employment.
- 58.1.5 Staff members shall make an application for Parental Leave at least 4 weeks prior to the proposed commencement of Parental Leave. Such application shall include the intended commencement date, the intended date of return to work and intended pattern of work on such return.
- 58.1.6 The University shall confirm Parental Leave arrangements in writing prior to the commencement of leave.
- 58.1.7 Staff members are required to provide a medical certificate nominating the anticipated date of birth or a statutory declaration demonstrating a parental relationship to the child. In cases where both parents are in employment, a statutory declaration setting out the leave arrangements made with their respective employers is required. If the staff member is the only parent employed the statutory declaration should state this fact.

- 58.1.8 Where paid Parental Leave is applicable then payment shall be made in accordance with the University's normal pay periods (which are currently fortnightly). No lump sum payments will be made.
- 58.1.9 In lieu of unpaid Parental Leave a staff member may apply to take accrued annual and/or long service leave that would otherwise be available. Such leave will be deemed to be time taken as Parental Leave. Parental Leave shall not extend beyond 52 weeks from the initial commencement of Parental Leave, including leave taken in accordance with this Clause.
- 58.1.10 All leave entitlements shall continue to accrue during paid Parental Leave. Where paid Parental Leave is taken on a part-time basis such entitlements shall accrue on a proportionate basis.
- 58.1.11 Unpaid Parental Leave shall count as service for the purpose of Long Service Leave, but not count towards any leave accruals or entitlements, including incremental progression. Periods of paid Parental Leave are to count towards service for incremental progression.
- 58.1.12 Where a Public Holiday falls during a period of Parental Leave, the period of leave will not be extended to compensate for the Public Holiday, whether the leave is paid or unpaid.
- 58.1.13 A staff member shall not be able to access any other type of leave except as provided for in sub-clause 58.1.9, whilst on approved Parental Leave as provided for in this Clause.
- 58.1.14 Except for the provisions in sub-clause 58.7.1, the parents may not normally be on Parental Leave at the same time, in respect of the same child(ren).

58.2 Maternity Leave

- 58.2.1 A female general staff member who has completed 40 weeks continuous paid service in accordance with sub-clause 58.1.1 and gives birth to a child(ren) shall be entitled to take up to a maximum of 52 weeks Parental Leave as the primary care giver of that child(ren) from the initial commencement of Parental Leave. This leave may be made up of:
  - 58.2.1.1 Paid Maternity Leave in accordance with sub-clause 58.2.2;
  - 58.2.1.2 Annual leave or long service leave in accordance with 58.1.9;
  - 58.2.1.3 Unpaid Leave up to the balance of the 52 weeks.
- 58.2.2 A staff member who has completed 40 weeks continuous paid service shall be entitled to 14 weeks paid Maternity Leave at ordinary pay. This paid Maternity Leave may be taken as 28 weeks at half pay. In lieu of any maternity leave return to work grant, a staff member may utilise the 12 weeks of annual salary on full (12 weeks) or half (24 weeks) pay as a further period of leave in addition to the 14 weeks above.
- 58.2.3 A staff member who takes Maternity Leave shall not be eligible for Partner Leave in respect of the same child(ren).
- 58.2.4 A staff member shall normally commence Maternity Leave between 4 weeks and 8 weeks prior to the anticipated date of the birth of their child. Where a staff member continues to work during the last 4 weeks before the anticipated date of birth of their child, a medical certificate(s) indicating fitness to undertake normal duties may be required. Where a staff member needs to commence Maternity Leave earlier than 8 weeks prior to the anticipated date of birth of their child, due to a medical condition and the staff member submits a written request along with a valid medical certificate, Maternity Leave will be allowed to commence earlier, in accordance with the medical certificate.
- 58.2.5 Where a staff member seeks to recommence work earlier than 6 weeks after the date of birth of their child, a medical certificate indicating fitness to undertake duties may be required.

- 58.2.6 At the completion of Maternity Leave the staff member must return to work in accordance with the provisions of sub-clauses 58.3, 56.4 or 58.5 below.

58.3 Unplanned Cessation of Maternity Leave

If Maternity Leave has commenced and the child is stillborn or the child dies during paid Maternity Leave, then up to a further 4 weeks of their paid Maternity Leave entitlement shall be able to be taken. The staff member whether on paid or unpaid Maternity Leave may return to work earlier than planned provided 4 weeks' notice of such return is given to the University and the staff member provides a medical certificate stating that they are fit to return to work.

58.4 Returning to a Temporary Part Time Position at the Completion of Maternity Leave

58.4.1 A general staff member may take leave after the actual date of birth or placement of the child on a part time basis for a period of up to 104 weeks, or as a combination of full time and part time of a proportionate period of up to 104 weeks. The total amount of leave without pay, which can be taken within this period, may not exceed 365 calendar days for a full time staff member including any period of paid Parental Leave. The program of leave on a part time/full time basis and the pattern of work on return must be acceptable to the Head of Unit. Where the program is not acceptable the Head will provide reasons.

58.4.2 Such part-time work may commence no earlier than the completion of any paid component of Maternity Leave.

58.4.3 Such temporary part-time work arrangement will automatically cease if the staff member proceeds on any new period of Parental Leave. Payment for such further Parental Leave shall be at the substantive rate applicable at the time the staff member proceeds on any new period of Parental Leave.

58.4.4 If during the 104 week period it is not practicable for a staff member to resume work on a part time basis in the position that they previously occupied prior to taking Maternity Leave, the staff member will be so advised. In such circumstances the University will attempt to identify a suitable vacant or alternate position at the same or lower level to which the staff member may be placed on a part-time basis. If the staff member agrees, the staff member will be placed in the vacant or alternate position and be paid the appropriate fraction of the salary applicable to their former substantive position for the period of temporary part-time work arrangement.

58.4.5 At the conclusion of the period of any temporary part-time work arrangement under sub-clause 58.4.1, the staff member shall return to their substantive position and work hours. If the former position occupied by the staff member prior to taking Maternity Leave no longer exists, the provisions of sub-clause 58.5.1 below apply.

58.5 Resumption of Duty at the Completion of Parental Leave

58.5.1 A general staff member is entitled to return to the substantive position and work pattern that they held immediately before commencing Parental Leave. If this position no longer exists, the University must attempt to provide the staff member with an equivalent graded position to that of the staff member's former position subject to the provisions relating to management of change elsewhere in this Agreement.

58.5.2 A staff member must be available to return to the position and work pattern that they held immediately prior to commencing Parental Leave at the end of their Parental Leave in accordance with this Clause unless:

58.5.2.1 they have submitted their resignation and given appropriate notice, or

58.5.2.2 they have written confirmation from the University of other agreed arrangements, or

58.5.2.3 the provisions of sub-clause 58.5.1 apply, or otherwise they will be deemed to have abandoned their employment and will be notified accordingly.

58.6 Maternity Leave Return to Work Grant

58.6.1 An amount equivalent to 12 weeks of annual salary, including on-costs, will be available to general staff members on return to work (at least 40% of full-time) from maternity leave (as per sub-clause 58.2.1) provided that the amount must be fully utilised within 104 weeks from the date of birth of the child(ren). The amount may be used for one or more of the following options:

58.6.1.1 To supplement the staff member's salary to the rate they were receiving prior to commencing Maternity Leave where the return to work is in a part-time capacity or reduced fraction;

58.6.1.2 Career development, including professional mentoring or career coaching, subject to the proposal being approved by the Professional and Organisational Development Services Unit and the Dean or Director of the Unit

58.6.1.3 To subsidise the full cost of off-campus child care; and/or

58.6.1.4 To subsidise Kids Uni child care.

Where the maternity leave return to work grant is utilised in lieu as salary under sub-clause 58.2.2, no further grant is applicable.

58.6.2 Where a staff member receives a payment under sub-clause 58.6.1.1. on part-time return to work the staff member shall have the option to either:

58.6.2.1 Remain in the part time role in accordance with sub-clause 58.4 and be paid only the ordinary part time salary; or

58.6.2.2 Return to their full time position in accordance with sub-clause 58.5.1.

In all other cases the staff member must return to work and remain in a paid capacity to receive the benefits provided in sub-clause 58.6.

58.7 Partner Leave

58.7.1 Following the birth or adoption of their child a general staff member, who is a partner and not the primary care giver, shall be entitled to access up to 5 days paid Partner Leave to provide support to the primary care giver.

58.7.2 Where a staff member and their partner are both employed by the University and the partner is to become the primary care giver of the child, and subject to the partner complying with all of 56.1, they will be entitled to the provisions contained in sub-clause 56.2.3 discounted by the period that they were not the primary care giver provided that the staff member and their partner (or mother of the child) shall not receive in excess of fourteen 14 weeks paid Maternity Leave combined. This means that the time spent by the staff member's partner being the primary care giver shall be counted as time taken by the staff member. Only one staff member may access the provisions of sub-clauses 58.4 and 58.6.

58.8 Adoption Leave

58.8.1 A general staff member who has completed 40 weeks continuous paid service in accordance with sub-clause 58.1.1 and is a primary carer in a legal adoptive situation, provided that:

58.8.1.1 the child(ren) has been living with the staff member or their partner for a period of less than three (3) months; or

58.8.1.2 is not a child or step-child of the staff member or the partner of the staff member the staff member shall be entitled to Adoption Leave.

58.8.2 Subject to sub-clause 58.8, any staff member entitled to Adoption Leave shall be entitled to the same entitlements available for Maternity Leave.

58.8.3 In accordance with sub-clause 58.8.2, any reference, in the Maternity Leave provisions, to the birth of a child(ren), for the purposes of Adoption Leave shall mean the placement of a child(ren) in an adoption arrangement.

58.9 Foster Parent Leave

58.9.1 A general staff member acting as the primary care giver of a foster child who is placed into the staff member's family for an anticipated period in excess of 6 months will be entitled to access up to 5 days paid Foster Parent Leave from the time that the child enters their care.

58.9.2 Satisfactory evidence will need to be provided to confirm the foster arrangement and the intended period of placement.

59. FAMILY LEAVE

59.1 The University provides a variety of flexible work arrangements for staff members to access to attend to their personal needs including flexible hours of work, rostered days off and time off in lieu arrangements. Staff members should seek to utilise these flexible work arrangements to attend to their personal needs.

59.2 Staff members may apply for paid leave as defined in this Clause for the purpose of:

- 59.2.1 Carer's responsibilities;
- 59.2.2 Bereavement;
- 59.2.3 Ceremonial or religious obligations;
- 59.2.4 Domestic violence; or
- 59.2.5 other contingency leave.

59.3 A staff member is entitled to be granted up to a maximum of 8 days Family Leave under this Clause each calendar year and on a proportionate basis for part-time staff members. Family Leave does not accrue from year to year. In extraordinary circumstances, where a staff member has exhausted their Family Leave entitlement the staff member may be granted up to an additional 4 days' leave which will be deducted from their sick leave accrual. Further, for domestic violence purposes only, the staff member may be granted up to an additional 11 days' leave which will also be deducted from their sick leave accrual. Where the staff member makes a submission to the Director Human Resources additional leave for domestic violence purposes may be granted. Consideration will be given to other forms of paid leave available to the staff member before additional leave is granted.

59.4 Family Leave may be taken for part of a single day.

59.5 Paid Family Leave in relation to carer responsibilities and bereavement will only be approved in relation to the staff member's:

- 59.5.1 Immediate family members, defined as including biological, adoptive, fostering and step relationships including parent, grandparent, brother, sister, child, grandchild, partner (married, de-facto, same sex, opposite sex, current or former) and their parent, grandparent, brother, sister, child, grandchild;
- 59.5.2 Household members where the staff member is the primary carer; and in the case of carer's responsibilities, where the staff member is the primary care giver.

59.6 In normal circumstances a staff member shall not take carer's leave under this Clause where another family or household member is taking leave at the same time.

59.7 In cases where a staff member has a family leave pattern of frequency or duration that is of concern it will be referred to the Director of Human Resources for consideration. Following such consideration the Director of Human Resources may require the staff member to produce sufficient supporting documentation to demonstrate the need for taking the leave which may include:

- 59.7.1 a medical certificate or statutory declaration to establish the illness of the person concerned and that the illness is such as to require care by another; or
- 59.7.2 newspaper notice or copy of the death certificate or statutory declaration; or
- 59.7.3 advice or documentation from a relevant civil authority;

Unless there are demonstrable mitigating circumstances why a staff member did not comply with the requirements of this sub-clause paid Family Leave will not be granted. Where paid Family Leave is not granted the staff member may take other forms of appropriate leave including leave without pay.

- 59.8 Applications for Family Leave considered not to comply under the provisions of this Clause shall not affect the staff member utilising other forms of leave as appropriate (i.e. Annual leave or Leave Without Pay). Approval of paid Family Leave shall not affect a staff member from applying for other forms of leave in conjunction with Family Leave.
- 59.9 This Clause will have no effect if the period of entitlement to leave under this Clause coincides with any other period of leave.
- 59.10 Where a staff member has exhausted their Family Leave and Annual Leave entitlements, additional Family Leave may be granted on the approval of the Vice Chancellor.

59.11 Carers Responsibilities

- 59.11.1 In respect of carers' responsibilities, Family Leave is primarily available for unplanned requirements. Where planned short term absences for one day or part of a single day (i.e. medical appointments) are required, staff members should seek to cover these absences in accordance with sub-clause 59.1.
- 59.11.2 The staff member shall, where practicable, give their direct supervisor (or other relevant supervisor) notice prior to the absence of the intention to take leave, the name of the person requiring care and their relationship to the staff member, the reasons for taking such leave and the estimated length of absence. Where it is not practicable for the staff member to give prior notice of absence, the staff member shall notify their direct supervisor (or other relevant supervisor) by telephone of such absence at the first opportunity on the day of the absence.
- 59.11.3 Family Leave may be utilised for the provision of care for people identified in sub-clause 59.5 who are hospitalised or in care institutions.

59.12 Bereavement

- 59.12.1 Subject to seeking prior approval a general staff member may be granted one day of Family Leave for bereavements, in any one instance, in relation to a person identified in sub-clause 59.5 above.
- 59.12.2 In addition to sub-clause 59.12.1 a staff member who has the principal responsibility for making funeral arrangements may be granted an additional day of Family Leave.

- 59.12.4 Where a staff member is required to undertake significant travel overseas a maximum of four days Family Leave may be granted in any instance, including the provisions contained in sub-clauses 59.12.1 and 59.12.2.

59.13 Ceremonial or Religious Obligations

General staff who apply for leave for ceremonial or religious purposes, other than leave for bereavement purposes as outlined in sub-clause 59.12, are required to provide sufficient evidence to support the absence. A general staff member may be entitled to one day of their Family Leave entitlement in any one instance. In the event of a dispute as to the validity of the proposed absence, the matter shall be referred to the Director Human Resources for recommendation.

59.14 Domestic Violence

General staff who are experiencing domestic violence may be granted Family leave to access medical, legal and support services. Supporting evidence of domestic violence may be required by the University and must take the form of a document issued by the police service, a court, a medical practitioner, community or government agency, a legal firm or other evidence acceptable to the University.

59.15 Other Contingencies

59.15.1 For the purpose of this Clause other contingencies shall be home burglary, bushfires, floods, or other disasters where the general staff member's residence or members of their household are at significant risk.

59.15.2 The staff member may be granted up to two days paid Family Leave in any one instance.

59.15.3 The staff member, where practicable, shall give their direct supervisor (or other relevant supervisor) notice prior to the absence of the intention to take leave, the reasons for taking such leave and the estimated length of absence. In extraordinary circumstances, if it is not practicable for the staff member to give prior notice of absence, the staff member shall notify their direct supervisor (or other relevant supervisor) by telephone of such absence at the first opportunity on the day of the absence.

60. COMMUNITY SERVICE LEAVE

60.1 A general staff member who engages in a voluntary eligible emergency management activity as prescribed in the Fair Work Act 2009 is required to give notice and advise the expected period of any absence as soon as reasonably possible.

60.2 A general staff member may access up to three days paid leave per calendar year to attend voluntary emergency activities and related training with the approval of their supervisor. Additional paid leave may be granted in exceptional circumstances on application to the Director Human Resources.

60.3 Emergency services leave will only be granted where the staff member provides documentary evidence of their training requirements, attendance during emergency situations and membership of the relevant emergency services association. Unless sufficient evidence to support the absence is provided, the staff member's absence will not be covered under this provision.

61. MILITARY LEAVE FOR DEFENCE FORCES

61.1 General staff who serve on a part-time basis in the Australian Naval, Military or Air Force Reserves are to be granted paid military leave at the rate of twenty (20) working days each calendar year to attend official training and other service.

61.2 In special circumstances, the Chief Administrative Officer may approve additional leave in excess of that provided for in 61.1 above on a leave without pay basis or other form of leave at the request of the staff member.

62. STAFF CALLED AS WITNESSES

Except as provided for below, a general staff member subpoenaed, summonsed or called as a witness shall notify the University of the required absence which shall be without pay or as a debit to Annual Leave at the option of the staff member. A staff member required as a witness on behalf of the University or as a witness in proceedings relating to this Agreement, shall be regarded as being on duty and shall not receive witness fees for the period for which the staff member is so required as a witness.

63. STAFF CALLED AS JURORS

A general staff member required to attend for jury service during ordinary working hours shall notify the University as soon as possible of the date upon which the staff member is required to attend for jury service. The staff member shall give the University proof of attendance, the duration of such attendance and the amount received in respect of such jury service (other than the amount received in respect of travelling). A staff member will be reimbursed by the University an amount equal to the difference between the amount paid in respect of attendance for such jury service and the amount of wage would have received in respect of the ordinary time the staff member would have worked had the staff member not been on jury service.
